

There are certain medical conditions that can be qualified for Disability Tax Credit.

If you want to get this credit, you need to get it from your family physician. The form T2201, must be completed and SIGNED by your Family Physician, then you need to submit it to CRA, if approved, you will be eligible to get it from CRA.

ADHD	Chronic Fatigue Syndrome	Depression
Back Problems & Conditions	Chronic Pain	Fibromyalgia
Bipolar Mood Disorder	Complex Regional Pain Syndrome	Headache and Migraine
Carpel Tunnel Syndrome	Crohn's Disease	Heart Disease
Irritable Bowel Syndrome (IBS)	Knee Disorders	Lupus
Lyme Disease	Multiple Sclerosis	Neck and Cervical Disorders
Psoriatic Arthritis	Sleep Disorders	Vestibular Disorders
Visual Disorders		